

Our new Health Services Coordinator

The team would like to welcome Bernadine to the position of Health Services Coordinator. Over the last three weeks Bernadine has been working hard to help us build up our medical practice. We welcome her good work for this important and essential service.